Spiders

A dream about something sticky: a situation that is hard to leave, or a plan you are building thread by thread.

THE THREE MAIN READINGS

1. Feeling trapped

A web often mirrors a debt, a relationship pattern, a job duty, or a family role that keeps pulling you back to the same spot.

2. What the spider does matters

Biting, crawling, watching, building, and hiding each point to a different kind of pressure. Note the action before you settle on a meaning.

3. One spider is not a swarm

One calm spider can point to patience or a private project. Many spiders at once often mean small worries have piled up until they feel like one big one.

IN YOUR DREAM

A spider in your bed or crawling on you makes the issue personal and close. A spider building in a corner, left alone, is usually about slow work that needs time.

A QUESTION TO SIT WITH

Where was the spider, what was it doing, and what did you feel in your body when you woke up?
